Motion carried 2-0

Chairman Hadaller asked for a staff report.

Rick Turnbull, Community Development gave a short presentation on the no shooting zone. He went over the area that was petitioned as a no shooting zone and stated that the total acreage was 183.4 acres.

Chairman Hadaller introduced Commissioner Lowery. He closed the meeting portion and went into recess for 3 minutes.

Chairman Hadaller opened the hearing for public comment.

Tim Renfro, Packwood, WA talked about a couple of scenarios with hunters on his property. He plans on building on his property along with other property owners. He does not want shooting in his back yard. He is in favor of the Ordinance.

Dan Devaux, Packwood, WA, Thanked the Commissioner and staff for helping with this issue. He also thanked Rick Turnbull for all his work on the No Shooting Zone. He asked the County for help to pass this Ordinance.

Maree Lerchen, Packwood, WA, stated she lives across river from Teal Lake and frequently has bullet holes on the outside of house. When hunters shoot from the Teal Lake area they shoot in the direction of her house. She is in favor of the Ordinance.

Tom Lerchen, Packwood, WA stated he owns 20 acres and is in favor of the Ordinance.

Tina Kriss, Packwood, WA property owner at Teal Lake stated she brings kids up to her property for something else to do besides getting in trouble. They have a quad track set up for the kids to ride on. They have hunters on their property hunting and are concerned about the safety and the liability of her family and of the other people they bring to their property. She is in favor of the Ordinance.

Chairman Hadaller asked Mr.Turnbull for clarification on what type of hunting would not be allowed and what type would be allowed under this ordinance.

Mr. Turnbull, went over that portion of the ordinance. Stating that percussion driven projectiles are not allowed in the no shooting zone and that bow and arrows were not considered firearms and they are allowed to be used in designated no shooting zones. He stated the County would be putting up ‘No Shooting Zone” signs for the new area.

Tom Lerchen spoke on the fact that bows are just as deadly as firearms and should be in the code as well.

Chairman Hadaller asked the Board for a motion to adopt Ordinance 1109-F. Commissioner Lowery made the motion to adopt Ordinance 1109-F. Chairman Hadaller seconded the motion.
